

LEADERSHIP 1:

Transforming Self Program

The Transforming Self program is an intensive experience of how to transform as a leader, through being in integrity to our highest Values and Purpose.

The program helps you become more self-aware to understand the drivers behind your behaviours, and identify what may be holding you back from your full leadership potential. In the program, you will learn how to step into a place of courage, choice, authenticity and fulfillment.

WORKING ON YOUR REAL CHALLENGES

In the program, we ask you to bring your current business or life challenges. Through experiential exercises, you will unlock them from a completely new perspective and higher level of consciousness. You will be able to take these tools into your work and personal life, allowing you to live a life of transformational leadership.

BASED ON LEADERSHIP RESEARCH

The process of this program is designed to unlock any challenge by integrating the latest leadership concepts such as adult stages of development and vertical development (Barrett, Kegan, Anderson, Heifetz, Scharmer, etc.) with the great wisdom traditions.

“You can’t solve a problem from the same level of thinking that created it.”

-ALBERT EINSTEIN

What you'll explore on the program

-  What are my challenges and why do they keep happening to me?
-  What are my personal values and what do they say about me?
-  What are the Seven Levels of Consciousness?
Where am I now? Where do I want to be in future?
-  What are my "triggers"?
-  What are my deeply held beliefs which I unknowingly carry?
-  What are the tools to transform at any moment?
-  What is my Purpose?
Why am I here?
-  How do I step into my authenticity?
